EDU-SYRIA in the German Jordanian University Job fair

Amman, Jordan. On Wednesday 18 April 2018, EDU-SYRIA graduates joined a job fair organized by the German Jordanian University (GJU).

EDU-SYRIA project continuously tries to support the Syrian refugees by encouraging all the programme graduates to participate in the GJU job fair, which introduced the students to the Jordanian industrial companies, and gave them the chance to interact with companies representatives, and discussed with them potential job opportunities and internships.

After the job fair, the representatives of EU delegation to Jordan; Mr. Job Arts, Mr. Oscar Casamian-Marco and Ms. Paulina Gajewska, along with EDU-SYRIA team discussed over lunch with the students graduates employment opportunities and after graduation future plans.

About EDU-SYRIA Project:

EDU-SYRIA is a framework to help Syrian refugees in Jordan and vulnerable Jordanians from the refugees host communities to get access to higher education through a set of scholarship programs. EDU-SYRIA supports the "No Lost Generation" strategy, which aims to provide those affected by the conflict with the chance to shape a more stable and secure future.

The project consists of two phases: EDU-SYRIA I and EDU-SYRIA II, which gives the students the opportunity to pursue an academic or professional educational degree. Both projects are managed by German Jordanian University 'GJU' under the name of GJU president Prof. Manar Fayyad as project director and Dr. Dhiah el Diehn Abou-Tair as project manager.
